

02N/3D Golden Triangle Tour (Delhi/Agra/Jaipur)

The Imperial monuments of India's busy capital Delhi, the Royal Palaces, the 'Pink' city of Jaipur and the overwhelmingly beautiful Taj Mahal at Agra are the principal attractions of this tour of North India

Day 1      Delhi-Agra (240kms/4hrs)

At 8.00 Am: After breakfast at Hotel, our car will pick you up & then proceed to Agra via Yamuna Expressway (approx 4hrs).

Agra, the city known for the famous monument of love - the Taj Mahal is the single most famous tourist destination of India. Located at a distance of approx. 210 km south of Delhi, it situated on the west bank of River Yamuna. The architectural splendor of the city is reflected in the glorious monuments of medieval India built by great Mughals who ruled India for more than 300 years.

On arrival in Agra, visit Taj Mahal.

Taj Mahal (Closed on Friday), with its incredible lacy white grandeur is perhaps the most perfect architectural monument in the world. To the poet Tagore it was a 'tear on the face of eternity'. In memory of his wife, the great Mughal emperor Shah Jehan constructed this most extravagant and incomparable monument built for love. Amazingly graceful from any angle, it is the close up detail, which is really astounding.

Proceed to Agra Fort, situated on the banks of the river Yamuna, is another monumental mission accomplished by the great Mughal visionary Emperor Akbar. His son Jahangir and grandson Shah Jehan added to this imposing structure during their rule. The palaces, mosques and audience halls contained within its massive wall of red sandstone are perfect examples of blending Islamic and Hindu traditions.

After that we take a visit to 'Aakrati', where you would get to shop the best of Carpets, Handicrafts, Textiles, Zardozi Embroidery, and Jewellery & Marble Inlay Work.

Later rest of the day is free to explore the city.

Overnight stay at hotel.

At 12.30 Pm: Arrive Jaipur and visit City Palace which now houses a museum containing rare manuscript, painting and an armory; visit the Palace of Winds-a Landmark of Jaipur made of pink sandstone and of unique design.

Arrive late & check-in to hotel.

Visit Amber fort built in the 17th Century; the palace is a distinguished specimen of Rajput architecture. Take a joy ride on an elephant back at Amber Fort. Set in a picturesque location, Amer is fascinating blend of Hindu and Muslim architecture.

Thereafter, explore the city starting from the Pink

Thereafter, explore the city starting from the Pink

Visit Jantar Mantar. The Jantar Mantar is an equinoctial sundial, consisting a gigantic triangular gnomon with the hypotenuse parallel to the Earth's axis. On either side of the gnomon is a quadrant of a circle, parallel to the plane of the equator. The instrument is intended to measure the time of day, correct to half a second and declination of the Sun and the other heavenly bodies. In the early 18th century, Maharaja Jai Singh II of Jaipur constructed five JantarMantars in total, in New Delhi, Jaipur, Ujjain, Mathura and Varanasi; they were completed between 1724 and 1735.

The jantars have evocative names like, Samrat Yantra, Jai Prakash, Ram Yantra and Niyati Chakra; each of which are used to for various astronomical calculations. The primary purpose of the observatory was to compile astronomical tables, and to predict the times and movements of the sun, moon and planets.
